The Honorable Pamela K. Chen
United States District Judge, E.D.N.Y.
Re: Maloney v. Singas, 03-cv-786

Dear Judge Chen:

Further to Wednesday's oral argument, I am writing, as promised, to identify two parts of the transcript of Sensei Pellitteri's testimony that were referenced:

(1) Sensei Pellitteri states that "nunchucks seem to be the most popular martial arts weapon" at page 238, lines 9-10, and immediately thereafter explains his basis for the belief. That opinion is further developed beginning at the top of page 244. Related testimony appears beginning at page 253, line 17.

(2) Sensei Pellitteri refers to "the practical self-defense applications" of nunchaku training at page 226, lines 12-13, and opines about the utility of the nunchaku as a home defense weapon beginning at page 237, line 11. Cross-examination as to the practicality of self-defense with nunchaku begins at page 299, line 11.

Respectfully submitted,

James Michael Maloney
